LAND SALES
ORDEREDImprovident Husband Is Got Rid Of-Court Proceedings.

Judge De Bolt granted an order to sell real estate belonging to the Gilliland minors, on the petition of their guardian, Christina Gilliland. The property consists of a lot on the northerly side of Maunakea street and 14 1-2 acres in Pauoa valley.

USELESS HUSBAND DIVORCED.
Judge Robinson granted a divorce to Maria Margarita Rickard against Richard Thomas Rickard, on a libel charging that, ever since their marriage on August 16, 1902, he had "absolutely failed, neglected and refused to provide suitable or any maintenance or support" for her. The custody of a female child is given to the mother, and she is allowed to resume her former name of Maria Margarita Hardy. Douthitt for libellant; Andrade for libellee.

PLANTATION TAXES CASE.
Deputy Sheriff Sea has subpoenaed James L. Holt to testify in the matter of the County of Kauai against James L. Holt and J. K. Farley, tax assessors of the 1st and 4th taxation divisions of Hawaii. The matter will be heard by Judge Hardy on September 27 at 10 a. m. This is the case to test the collection at Honolulu of income taxes due by plantations on the island of Kauai. Kauai county authorities claim that Kauai should have the benefit of such taxes.

CHARITABLE CREDITORS.
The final account of Lam Chang See, administratrix of the estate of Lam Hong, deceased, was approved by Judge Robinson. There is a balance of $351.50. Many of the creditors waived their claims against the estate, the rest taking only ten per cent of theirs, owing to the family's poverty. A. P. Judd appeared for petitioner. Later the mother was appointed guardian of her minor children.

COURT ITEMS.
W. H. Cornwell yesterday petitioned Judge A. N. Kopoikai for a partition of property belonging to the estate of W. H. Cornwell, deceased, and situated at Waikapu. The petition is directed against the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, administrator, and others. Judge Robinson yesterday sustained a demurrer to the amended complaint of Rosalia Barete against Antonio J. Lopes and dismissed the complaint.

Deputy Sheriff George C. Sea yesterday subpoenaed John P. Mendiola of Lihue, Kauai, to bear testimony in the case of William Richmond, libellant for divorce from Mary C. Richmond. The bill to set aside a deed brought by Kanini against Kalai et al. was dismissed by Judge Robinson without prejudice. No appearance was made for plaintiff. C. P. Peterson appeared for defendants.

Celia Noar filed a bond of $250 as administratrix of the estate of Isaac Noar, her surety being Julia Noar. The account of the temporary administrator, Frank Godfrey, was approved and he ordered discharged by Judge Robinson. Judge Robinson appointed James Alexander Lyle as executor of the will of Louis Busnell.

LOW UPON
THE STANDDenies All Knowledge of Dickering With His Brother.

Circuit Judge Lindsay resumed the hearing of the Parker ranch case yesterday after an adjournment of several weeks.

The feature of interest in the afternoon proceedings was the production of a number of letters written by F. Wundenberg, to Aubrey, the manager of Humuula sheep station, referring to Eben Low and his plans, and Low's denial of any knowledge of what Wundenberg was referring to in the letters.

Kinney was endeavoring to show that the plans which required for their consummation the removal of A. W. Carter from the management of the Parker ranch and the guardianship of the minor, were in full swing early in 1904, and were connected with a general scheme in which the acquisition of Macfarlane's sheep station at Puuloa, and the Humuula sheep station, figured.

Low, on the other hand, strenuously denied all knowledge involving a change of management of the Parker ranch up to within a few days of his appointment by Parker in June and his endeavoring to take possession.

Kinney produced letters, one at a time, from Wundenberg to the manager of Humuula, referring to negotiations between Eben Low and Parker for Humuula, and finally a letter dated in March, in which Wundenberg says: "Negotiations are in full swing regarding Parker's interests not only in Humuula, but the ranch as well. Low and Parker are now at the ranch looking over matters and a settlement may be reached at any time."

The witness was asked to refresh his memory by reference to this letter, but insisted that he knew nothing of the negotiations mentioned. In a subsequent letter dated May 5, Wundenberg says: "We are still working matters up. Eben Low is here and pushing matters for all he is worth." But this also failed to refresh the witness' memory, he still testifying that there were no schemes on foot at the date mentioned and that he was entirely in the dark as to what Wundenberg could be referring to.

NEW PORTUGUESE CLUB.

A new Portuguese club was formed last night, going through the stage of temporary organization with the following officers: L. R. Medeiros, president; V. Fernandez, vice president; M. Dupont, secretary and treasurer; M. A. Silva, Mr. Muriz, A. G. Correa, Abel Nascimento and Al. O. Rosa, board of directors. The next meeting will be on Sunday at 6:30 p. m., when permanent organization will be effected. M. Dupont and M. B. Vieira were respectively temporary chairman and secretary of the preliminary meeting.
